Torrance Woman's Club Hears Valley Lecture

By NADA L. SKIDMORE

Get behind the headlines for the long range point of view, Lorita Baker Valley urged members and friends of Torrance Woman's Club in her initial lecture of a series.

In the post-war world of conflict and confusion, the average person finds it hard to be a thinking American citizen. "We are all threatened with intellectual vertigo," Mrs. Valley laughed.

The lecturer then outlined the story of "Finian's Rainbow," New York stage hit, to illustrate the current trend to escape from hard realities into a world of fantasy.

"Finian is a realist with both feet planted firmly on a cloud," she commented, but even Finian learns that Americans are the "best ill-clad, ill-fed and ill-housed people in the world."

Americans have shouldered a tremendous job in the peacetime reconstruction of ravaged countries in Asia and Europe, Mrs. Valley continued, but through the Marshall plan and other measures may be successful. "But it is food, not ideologies, that hungry nations want," she said.

The speaker recommended as "must" reading for understanding "No Peace for Asia" by Harold R. Isaacs, wartime Newsweek correspondent and "The European Cockpit" by William Henry Chamberlain.

Isaac's book is a "brilliant, level-headed analysis of Asia problems," she reported, while "The European Cockpit" gives an accurate overall picture of a war-torn Europe in which Switzerland is the only country where poverty does not walk the streets.

Fiction Mrs. Valley rated tops included "The Moneyman," another historical novel by Thomas Costain; "Hill of the Hawk," descriptive tale of early Southern California, days by Scott O'Dell, and "Vespers in Vienna," written with humor and subtlety by Bruce Marshall.

Designed to aid housewives in combating rising prices and to meet food shortages, a food "fashion show" will be conducted at Los Angeles Red Cross Chapter headquarters, 1200 So. Vermont ave., on Wednesday, Nov. 5, from 2 to 9 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

Held under the auspices of the nutrition department of the Red Cross, assisted by 15 home economics departments, the one-day show will feature helpful suggestions for economical preparation of meals as shown through the medium of colorful exhibits in the chapter house auditorium. Mrs. Una R. Steer, nutrition director for Los Angeles Red Cross, is supervising arrangements for the novel event.

Other books recommended by Mrs. Valley were: "Revolution Before Breakfast," Ruth and Leonard Greenup; "One Last Look Around," Clark Lee; "Richer by Asia," Edmond Taylor; "You're the Boss," Edward J. Flynn; "Adversary in the House," Irving Stone; "Linden" on the Saugus Branch, Elliot Paul; "Reilly of the White House," Michael Reilly; "Dirty Eddie," Ludwig Bemelmans; "Prince of Foxes," Samuel Shellabarger; "Gus the Great," Thomas Duncan and "The Ledge of the Lying Dog," William Weekly.

Second and third lectures of the series will be given Feb. 18 and April 21.

A large number of members of the Sisterhood gathered a week before at the Vista Del Mar Grotto to honor Mrs. Mitchell Kanter, retiring president, with a surprise luncheon.

In appreciation for her diligent leadership, the Sisterhood presented Mrs. Kanter with a gardenia corsage and a lovely pin. Taking Mrs. Kanter's chair will be the vice president, Mrs. R. Rosenzweig, to whom the members promised their wholehearted cooperation.

An extra session was held at the home of Mrs. Van Kaufman in Hermosa Beach Thursday evening to discuss coming events. It was announced that tickets to the theater party to be held Tuesday at the Bliss-Hayden Theater in Los Angeles, may be obtained by calling Mrs. Rosenberg. Price is $1.00.

HERALD-EXPRESS CONTEST WON BY TORRANCE CHILD

Jan Planz, four and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Planz, 1908 1/2 Caballo avenue, was judged winner of the recent Los Angeles Herald-Express Exposition contest.

She was chosen from an enrollment of 10,000 children, and awarded a dance scholarship for the Dewey King Studio.

A kindergarten pupil of Torrance, Jan previously had posed for a photograph taken by Bill Husbands which won first prize in a contest of the Torrance Camera club.

She has been taking dance lessons once a week at the Three Arts Studio since February of this year.

Fern Avenue PTA Selects Nominating Committee Members

Two members were chosen for the nominating committee to represent Fern Avenue PTA in forming the First District Council by the executive board last Wednesday.

The committee now consists of Albert Posner, school principal; Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, president, PTA; Mrs. H. G. Babcock, publicity chairman; and I. O. Kasten, auditor.

A talk by the school nurse, Mrs. V. H. Markham and a Community Chest film were scheduled for the regular PTA meeting yesterday in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Vanderpool attended a meeting held at the School Board executive office Monday of the four presidents of Torrance Parent Teacher associations, with J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Neal Stevenson, the First District chairman of the extension committee. A petition was signed requesting permission to form the council.

TEMPLE MENORAH SISTERS HONOR RETIRING HEAD

A meeting of the Temple Menorah Sisterhood was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Greenstone in Hermosa Beach.

A large number of members of the Sisterhood gathered a week before at the Vista Del Mar Grotto to honor Mrs. Mitchell Kanter, retiring president, with a surprise luncheon.

In appreciation for her diligent leadership, the Sisterhood presented Mrs. Kanter with a gardenia corsage and a lovely pin. Taking Mrs. Kanter's chair will be the vice president, Mrs. R. Rosenzweig, to whom the members promised their wholehearted cooperation.

BETSY ROSS LUNCHEON

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 Monday, Oct. 27, to the Betsy Ross club in the Masome temple, according to the chairman, Mrs. Billie Kerber. A business meeting will follow, presided over by Mrs. Gladys Mothersell.

SHIRLEY HUDSON BECOMES ENGAGED TO DAVID O'LEARY OF REDONDO BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hudson, 20713 Shearer ave., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Priscilla, to David O'Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. O'Leary, of Redondo Beach.

The wedding ceremony will take place Dec. 7 in Christ Episcopal church, Redondo Beach.

An interesting highlight is the fact that the couple first met at a Young People's Fellowship meeting in Christ church, where Miss Hudson is president.

The first of a series of showers for Miss Hudson was given Saturday in the parish hall by the Women's Auxilliary of the church.

Miss Hudson, who for the past six years has served as legal secretary to John A. Graham, Los Angeles attorney, is a graduate of Torrance high and the Ryer Business College in Los Angeles.

Mr. O'Leary is at present a studio decorator with Warner Brothers. After graduation from Hollywood high school, he had three years of active service in the United States Navy.
